Clause 4: Expert Recommendation

If a dispute arises out of or relates to this agreement, or the breach, termination, validity or subject matter thereof, or as to any claim in tort, in equity or pursuant to any domestic or international statute or law, the parties to the agreement and to the dispute expressly agree to attempt to settle the dispute by Expert Recommendation administered by the Australian Commercial Disputes Centre (ACDC) before having recourse to arbitration or litigation. Subject to the remaining provisions of this clause, the parties agree to accept the recommendation of the expert as final and binding.

(a) A party claiming that a dispute has arisen must give written notice to the other parties to the dispute specifying the nature of the dispute.

(b) On receipt of the notice specified in (a), the parties to the dispute must within seven (7) days of receipt of said notice seek to resolve the dispute.

(c) If the dispute is not resolved within seven (7) days or within such further period as the parties agree then the dispute is to be referred to ACDC.

(d) The Expert Recommendation shall be conducted in accordance with ACDC Expert Recommendation Guidelines which set out the procedures to be adopted, the process of selection of the expert and the costs involved and which terms are hereby deemed incorporated.

(e) If one party decides not to comply with the recommendation, that party shall, subject to paragraph (f), pay all costs of the other party for any subsequent arbitration or litigation. These costs include the costs of solicitors, consultants, barristers and court fees calculated from the date of non-compliance with the recommendation to and including the arbitral or adjudicated determination.

(f) If the award of the judge or arbitrator improves the position of the non-complying party by at least 2 [or some other amount], the non-complying party is not then required to pay any costs of the complying party.

(g) At the time of non-compliance with the recommendation, the non-complying party must pay as security a total of any amounts the expert recommended as due to the other party, AND $..... [an amount agreed to by the parties to this contract and stated in this contract] as costs to the complying party to cover its legal expenses calculated from the time of non-compliance to the time of the arbitrated or adjudicated determination.

(h) This clause shall not merge upon completion.
